Luminosity includes three ballets evolving from a theme of renewal.

1. Copland's APPALACHIAN SPRING BALLET FOR 13 INSTRUMENTS
By arrangement with Boosey and Hawkes, Inc., publisher and copyright owner.
Appalachian Spring centers around the idea of Spring as a time of rebirth as we celebrate the marriage of a young couple starting their new life together.

2. In Memoriam
Adagio for Strings
Composed by Samuel Barber
Presented under license from G. Schirmer Inc., copyright owners.
In Memoriam depicts the emotional experience of people whose loved ones are deployed and how important hope is for those left behind.

3. Igor Stravinsky THE FIREBIRD, Ballet Suite 1945
Used by arrangement with European American Distributors Company, U.S. and Canadian agent for Universal Music Publishing Group/MCA, publisher and copyright owner.
Firebird Suite tells a fairy tale story of good triumphing over evil and new life emerging from the ashes.

BALLET INDIANA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

GUEST ARTIST

SUNNY HSIEH

Originally from Taiwan, Sunny Hsieh immigrated to Toronto, Canada, at the age of five. He began his dance training at the age of twelve to improve his balance for martial arts and quickly became obsessed with dance. He began training seriously under Evelyn Hart and later joined Orlando Ballet School as a Trainee. Sunny has danced professionally for Ballet Palm Beach, Ballet Des Moines, Ballet Spartanburg, and Colorado West Performing Arts Company. Currently a dancer for Canyon Concert Ballet in Colorado under artistic director Michael Pappalardo. Sunny has performed a wide variety of roles such as of the titular character of The Picture of Dorian Grey, Harker in Dracula, Peter Pan, and Puck in Midsummer.
